

Inspire 2010
The Power of Mentoring Awards

NOMINATE A MENTOR

for

The Power of Mentoring Awards

Celebrating individuals, organizations, and community leaders who give back through mentoring.

Mentoring is a simple yet transformative relationship that advances individuals both personally and professionally. The inaugural Inspire: Power of Mentoring Awards will celebrate the efforts of seven individuals and one organization for their use of mentoring to inspire excellence. This event supports College Mentors for Kids, an organization that has inspired children and college students through mentoring for 14 years. Each selected Mentor of Excellence will receive an award, media recognition, and public recognition at Inspire 2010 on February 24.

Award Categories

One individual Mentor of Excellence will be selected from each of the following industry categories:

Accounting, Banking & Financial Services
Entrepreneurship
Technology

Health & Health Sciences
Education
Athletics

In addition to the industry mentors, one Community Mentor of Excellence and one Organization of Excellence will be selected.

Selection Committee Chairs

Randy Reichmann, Old National Bank

Rob Hillman, Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Indiana

Jim Jay, TechPoint

December Warren, IYI's Indiana Mentoring Partnership

Dave Becker, First Internet Bank

David Shane, LDI, Ltd.

Tully Bevilaqua, Indiana Fever

Roland Dorson, Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce

Nominate your Mentor

Visit www.collegementors.org. Deadline for nomination is January 31, 2010.

More about College Mentors for Kids

College Mentors for Kids, Inc., is an innovative non-profit that pairs youth with local college student mentors for weekly activities that expose youth to the opportunities of higher education. College Mentors for Kids serves over 1,200 youth with over 1,400 college student volunteers. The mission of College Mentors for Kids is to motivate youth and communities to achieve their potential by fostering inspiration to transform lives, education to change attitudes, and connections to increase opportunities.

Sponsors:

The Ackerman Foundation

Mike & Sue Smith

Sponsorship opportunities and tickets available at www.collegementors.org.